Gentlemen:-

As I wrote you yesterday, I enclose herein
N.Y. aft. in sum of $25. which kindly place to my credit and oblige.

On reaching home I found your letter regarding advancing some of the bids sent you, but there was not time for a letter to reach you. The figures given in your letter will be of value in some future sale.

Please send me a priced catalogue of the sale as soon as convenient and charge to my acct.

Yours truly,

I enclose above amt. Please rect. and return bills.

Coins on approval duly recd. and will make selections and remit for same in a day or so. Am not sure can use the 1876 proof set as it lacks the 20¢ piece. Party for whom I bid wanted it especially on account of the 20¢ piece. Will keep for myself most of the other pieces sent.

Ref'd to File, Ac.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen:

Your favor of a few days ago enclosing another 1856 eagle cent duly recd. and I enclose $7.60 for same, recd. of which please acknowledge. The price seems rather high for a worn piece.

Yours truly,

J. H. Stewart
